SUNSET MY FAVORITE COLOUR

I have been a journalist for most of my work life.

Watching and making images have always been close to my heart.

ITS A THERAPY

LANDSCAPE THROUGH THE LENS OF SUNDER IYER

FROM MY PUNE TERRACE

SHOT 40 YEARS BACK

THERE IS NO POINT BEYOND A POINT

I always loved nature and that drew me towards landscapes. Though I don't limit myself to any specific genre. I make images of anything that pleases me.

I bought my first camera (hotshot) from my first salary as a banker long back. Back in college days seeing S.Paul's pictures published in The Indian Express, I figured that I love images.

MAKE THINGS BEAUTIFUL

Signature

Landscape:

Landscapes have been an integral part of travel photography. The purpose is to make others too fall in love with a place.

FILM ROLL DAYS

ANYTHING YOU LOVE GETS BEAUTIFUL

Whatever you love, it becomes beautiful and I love nature so landscapes were my obvious first choice.

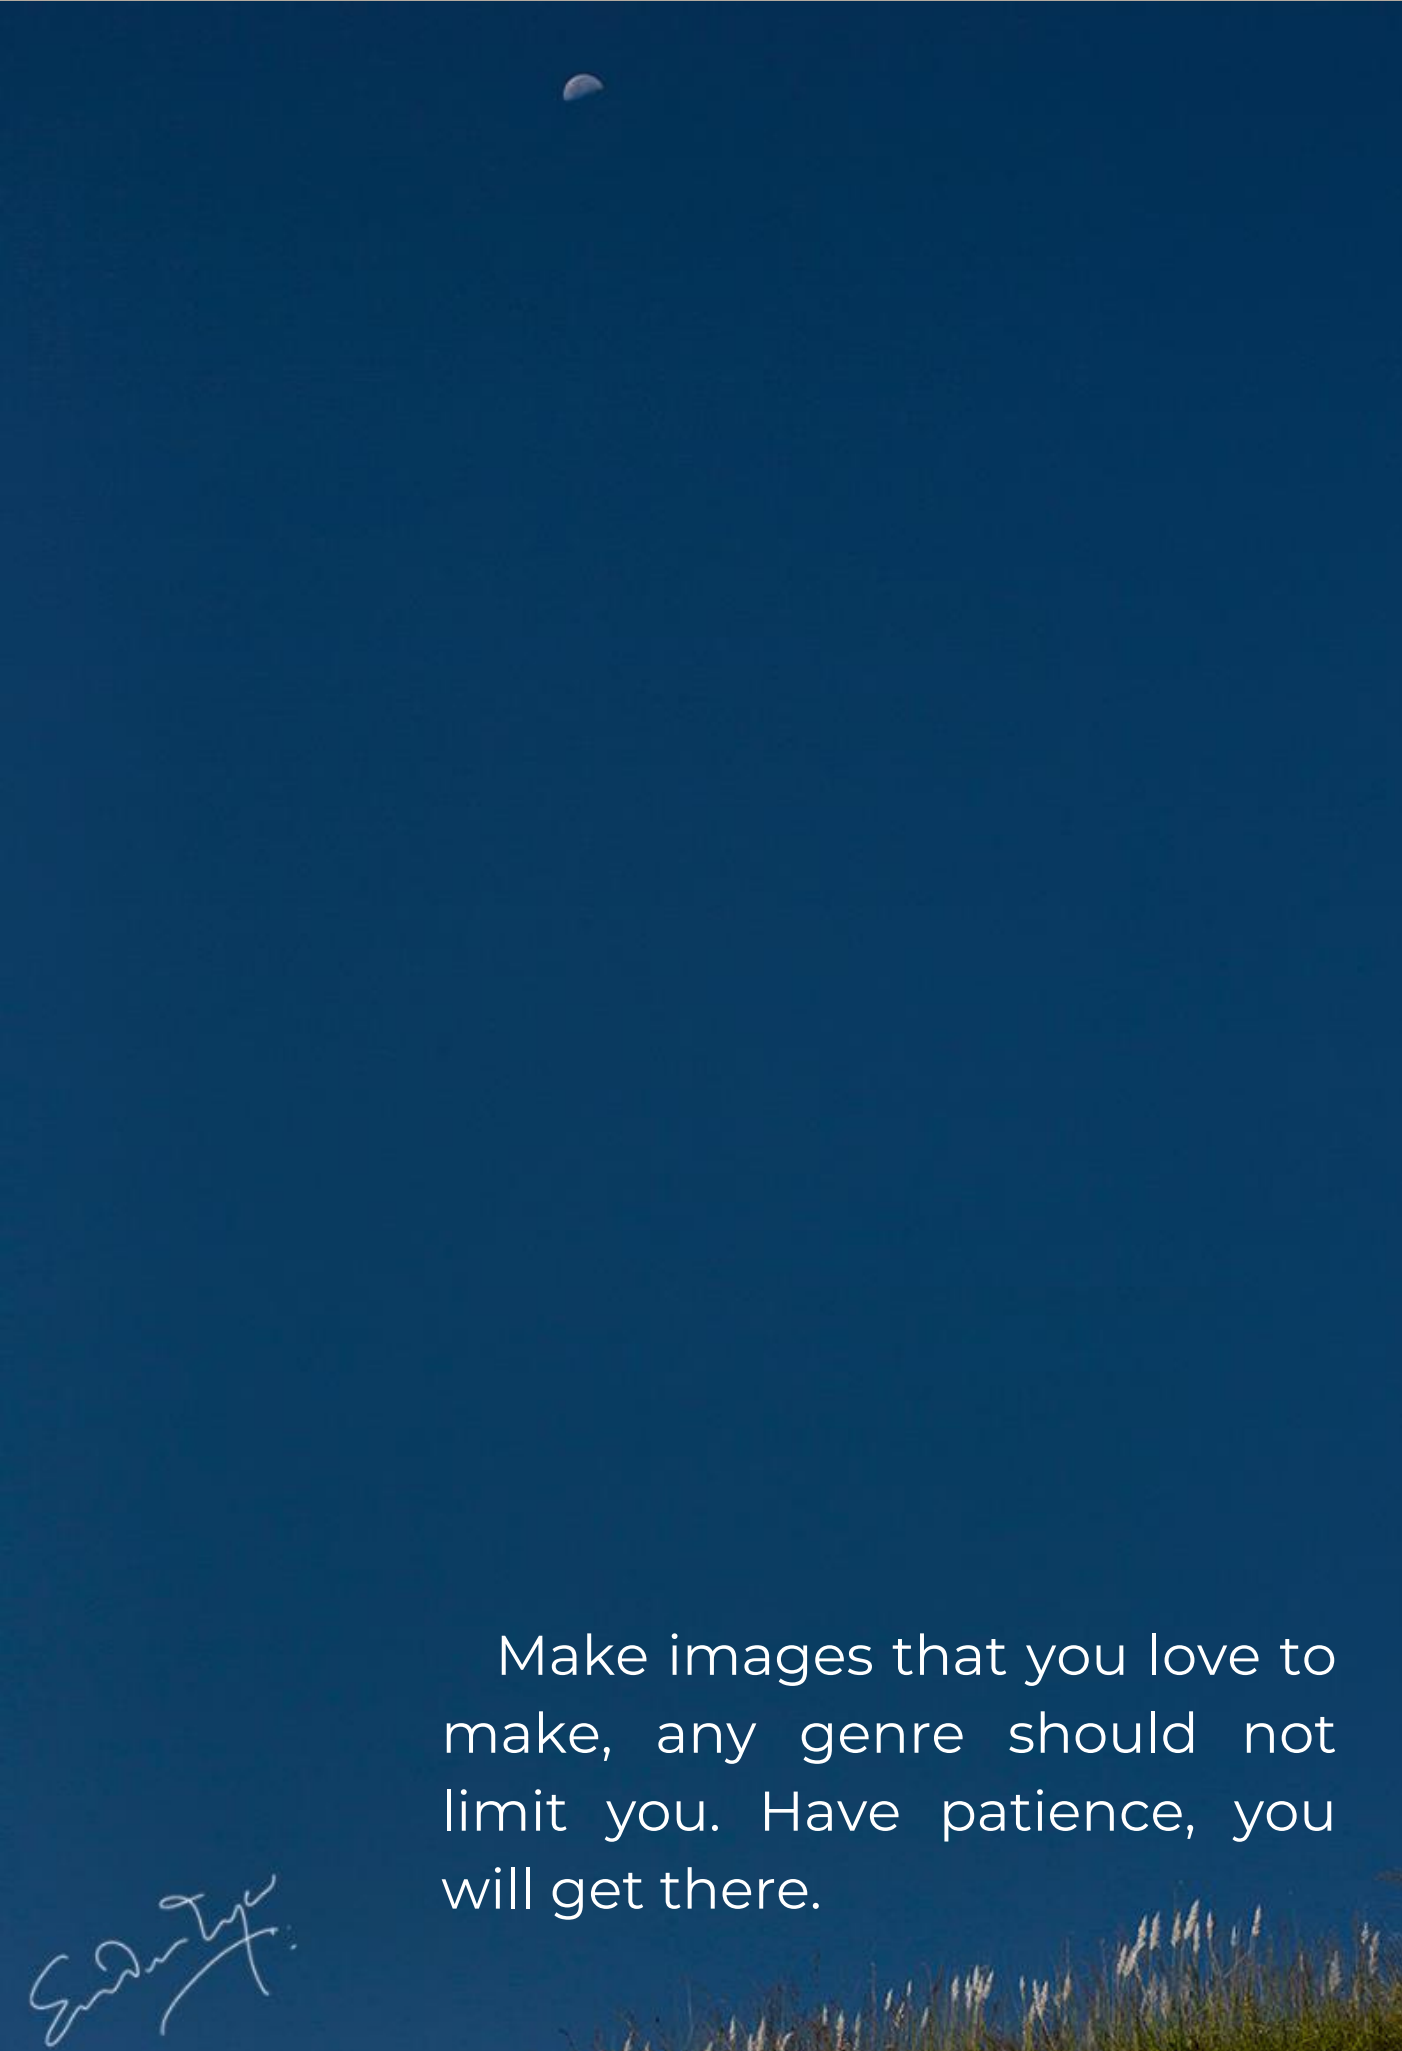

CREATE A NOSTALGIA

I guess every image has a story behind it.

TRANSLATING A THOUGHT

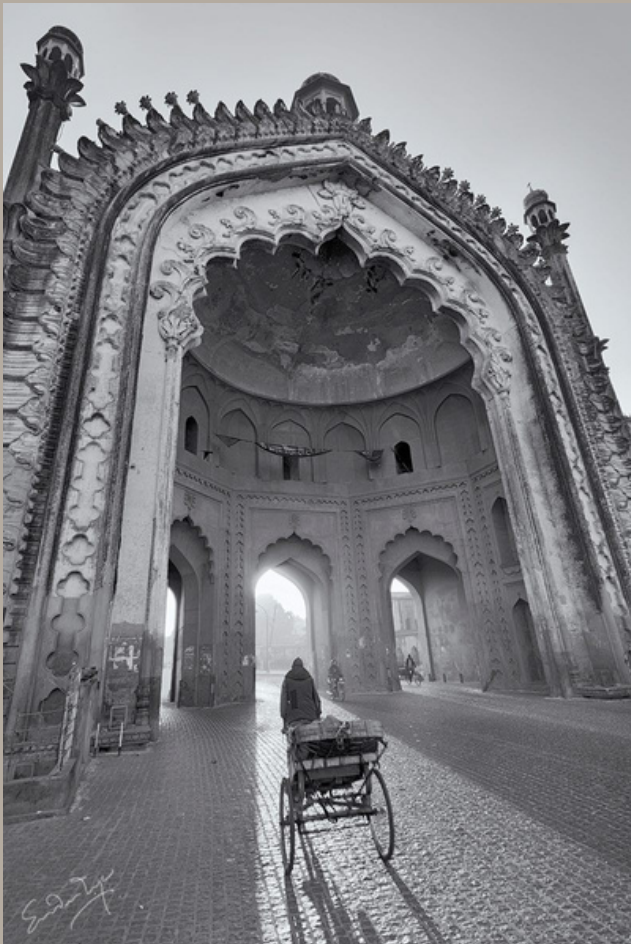

Make images that you love to make, any genre should not limit you. Have patience, you will get there.

GO TO GEAR SET UP

Normally its a standard 50 mm lens, though I love using a mid range zoom. These days my mobile phone is the go-to-gear for so many reasons.
