INTRODUCTION

Ashok Verma was born in New Delhi in 1968 with a childhood dream of doing something new in photography. After many years of struggle, he established a small studio in the basement of Lakshmi Nagar, New Delhi. Unfortunately, on the first day of starting his studio, it was crashed due to heavy rainfall. Despite this setback, Ashok Verma's perseverance never faltered, and he continued to push forward until he finally succeeded. Today, he is an iconic photojournalist, fashion, and street photographer residing in Dubai.
